IS there more than one kind of Ivory Soap?

No! But there are a hundred imitations. They resemble Ivory Soap in size, shape, color and wrapper—sometimes even in name.

It is a waste of money to buy such soaps; and a waste of time to use them.

NATIONAL CONGRESS OF MOTHERS MET IN FAMOUS NIGHT CITY.

DENVER, June 21.—"The City of Lights," as Denver is known, gave a splendid greeting to the National Congress of Mothers, which held its convention here from June 19 to 25.
Thirty-two states sent delegates to the convention, which was the fourteenth annual gathering of the association. Denver prides herself on the crowds that fill her streets at night.
And this is one of the subjects that the convention dealt with—the danger of parents permitting their children on the streets after dark. The conference was specially important by reason of the subjects to be considered. They are in part "Saving the Babies," "Helping the Erring Boys and Girls," "Causes of Crime and Prevention," "Educational Features in the First Twelve Years of the Child's Life," "Home Church School Street," "A Safe Fourth of July," "Social Life in High Schools and Universities," "Education in Home Making," "The Problems of Rural and City Homes," "Training for Citizenship," "A National Department of the Government for Home and Child." The officers, founder and advisory council are as follows: Mrs. Theodore W. Birney, founder; Mrs. Frederic Schöff, Philadelphia, president; Mrs. David O.
Mears, Albany, N. Y., vice president; Mrs. Jefferson D. Gibbs, Los Angeles, Cal., vice president; Mrs. Roger B.

McMullen, Evanston, Ill., vice president; Mrs. James S. Bolton, New Haven, Conn., recording secretary; Mrs.
James McGill, Washington, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Louis K. Gilson, Wilmette, Ill., treasurer. Advisory Council—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Robert Collyer, D. D., New York; Rev.
Josiah Strong, New York; Roger B.
McMullen, Chicago; Frederic Schöff, Philadelphia; Rev. David O. Mears, Albany; Dr. William P. Wilson, Philadelphia; Hon. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, Washington; Dr. George E.
MacLean, Iowa; Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, Brooklyn; Hon. Charles R.
Skinner, New York; Arthur A. Birney, Washington; George K. Johnson, Philadelphia.

FANCY DANCING BEST EVER

The exhibition of fancy dancing by Mrs. Gunn's class, in the makai ballroom of the Young Hotel last evening, fully came up to the expectations of those who attended.

After the pretty work by the class, the audience as well as the class mingled in a general dance, and a good time was surely enjoyed.

Mrs. Gunn received much praise for the finished manner in which the small fancy dancers did their work.

Following are the pretty impersonations by the class:

Bentrice Lucas danced a butterfly dance; Margaret Thrum represented Spring in a topsy-turvy interpretation; Adeline Allague and Lucy Ahaque gave a song and dance quite pretty; Helen Carter won praise for her "Dixie" dance, and Alma Perguson interpreted a mosquito parade; Edith Kibling rendered a Spanish dance in a captivating manner.

While Henriette Smith made a "Tommy Atkins" which won applause from British and other hands; Margaret Center gave a pretty Spanish dance.

The Rose Drill interpreted by four trios of pretty young misses was a spectacular feature. The scarf dance was a very pretty conception, danced by Violet Lucas, Edean Winter, Carol Low, Margaret McCarthy and Gladys Kruger. The Russian salon dance was given by Catherine Hall, Bernice Jaeger, Bertha Harris, Helene Morgan, Kulamann McWayne and Iwaland Jaeger. Jack

Walker and Clarence Murray were interesting little couples. Those who took part in the rose drill were:

Pink Roses—Kulamann McWayne, Alma Ferguson, Edith Morton.

Yellow Roses—Thelma Lindley, Alvina Blom, Agnes Schurmann.

Red Roses—Winona Wallace, Gladys Kruger, Thelma Auerbach.

White Roses—Violet Lucas, Edean Winter, Marie Davison.

HAVE MADE SUGGESTIONS

T. J. Ryan and Link McCandless were callers on Secretary Mott-Smith yesterday to object to the proposed method of taking the plebiscite vote.

Ryan objected to the regulation requiring each voter to sign the predict voting list, and both objected to the names of the precinct vote being numbered.

Although Secretary Mott-Smith can see no real objections to either of the procedures which the two politicians don't like, he is willing to conform to their ideas.

Another suggestion made to the bullet is that the Hawaiian words "he" and "she" be left off the ballot, but as these words are required to be placed there by law, there is no possibility of their being removed.

Cable News (Continued from Page 1.) MINNESOTA FOR TAFT

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 21.—The Republican State convention, held here today, was in full control of the regulars, who nominated their ticket and passed a strong vote of confidence in President Taft and his administration.

This resolution commended the President for his wise and conciliatory course in national affairs.

Eberhardt Renominated.
Governor Adolph O. Eberhardt, who carried the State by a plurality of twenty-eight thousand in 1908, was nominated to succeed himself, the nomination being unanimous.

MEXICO EXPECTS TROUBLE.

EL PASO, Tex., June 21.—All along the Mexican border, from Can-anea to Ciudad, the country is in a state of revolutionary ferment and the troops are having great difficulty in keeping order. On the American side of the line, American troops are held ready to suppress any disorder that might arise in American territory.

The Mexican elections take place on Sunday, and the popular feeling against the Diaz administration, which is being forcibly checked and prevented from registering itself at the polls, may result in a serious outbreak. On Monday, arms that were being smuggled across the line into the border towns were discovered, resulting in the declaring of martial law.

WILL COMPLETE WATER WORKS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—
The House tonight passed a bill providing for the issuance of certificates for twenty million dollars to complete the various government irrigation projects now in progress under the reclamation bureau. It is stated that the passage of this bill in the Senate is assured.

The Senate will vote tomorrow on the Postal Savings Bank Bill, one of the most important measures of the session.

WARSHIPS GO SOUTH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—
Orders were issued from the Navy Department today for the first division of the Pacific fleet, including the cruisers California, Colorado, Pennsylvania and Washington, under command of Rear Admiral Harbor, to sail for Valparaiso on August 14, to take part in the Chilean semi-centenial celebration.

VALLEY HOUSE OPENS WIDE

The historic old mansion of Col.
Z. S. Spaulding, at Keala, was the scene of a brilliant assemblage last Saturday night, when Rufus P.
Spaulding, who has taken his father's place as president of the Maikai Sugar Company; Miss Genevieve Stelman from Pasadena, and a representative list of Kaula residents from all over the island enjoyed a happy evening.

The invitations read for eight-thirty p. m., and shortly after that hour the dancing began and was continued, with short intermissions, until one o'clock in the morning—Garden Island.

INSURANCE RATE HOLDING HIGH

For some time the local insurance rates have been playing hide and seek, and the rate for the next day could not be foretold by the best and in the business, but there is a ray of hope ahead for the residence owner, as there seems to be the prospect of a drop in the rates in that division of the business.

It is claimed that the good supply of water behind the Nuuanu dam is responsible for the prospective drop in the rates. This, it would seem, will only apply in favored sections.

TOPOGRAPHERS QUIT KAUI

The majority of the party who have been making a topographical survey of Kauai, are leaving today for Honolulu, their labors ended, and the finishing touches to the work here will be added by Chief Topographer C. H. Birdseye and the small party who will remain with him, including Engineers A. T. Fow-

Those leaving on the Kinau are H. L. McDonald, G. R. Davis, W. H.
Barringer, O. G. Taylor, T. H. Mon-cure and J. L. Lewis, who are expecting to take the Wilhelmina for the Coast on June 22.

The engineers have had a busy and interesting six months of it, on this island, but they are all glad to be going home again, and are looking forward with the liveliest anticipations to their return journey to the mainland.—Garden Island.
